

Code of Conduct

The students of the William Spyropoulos School are expected to adhere to the following guidelines every day. Administration and Faculty will guide our students to doing things right and making wise choices. Consequences will be implemented, as per Discipline Contract signed by students, parents, and teachers, if a student demonstrates unacceptable behavior and disregard for any of these rules. Our goal is to have a school community consisting of self-confident, responsible, courteous, respectful, and happy students.

Guidelines to be followed daily:

- Be polite, courteous, and respectful to all students, teachers, and staff
- Attend school regularly and be punctual
- Be prepared for class with appropriate materials and properly maintain textbooks and other school equipment
- Learn and follow school rules in the classroom and in all areas of the building
- Set a good example by being kind and inclusive of others
- Behave in a manner that contributes to a safe learning environment that does not violate the rights of others to learn
- Share information with school officials regarding matters that may endanger the health and welfare of the members of our school community
- Respect the dignity and equality of others and refrain from conduct which denies or impinges upon the rights of others
- Show respect for school and church property, and respect the property of others
- Use non-confrontational methods to resolve conflicts
- Do not use obscene and/or defamatory communication in speech, writing, and other modes of expression when interacting with others
- Bring to school only those personal possessions that are safe and do not interfere with the learning environment
- Adhere to the rules established for the use of cell phones during school hours
- Follow the guidelines of our school's dress code
- Demonstrate exemplary conduct that follows our Greek Orthodox values at all times
