Hello Everyone!

November was a busy month. The 8th grade class had their Ring Ceremony on the 14th and the Kindergarten Thanksgiving Day assembly was on the 21st. We also had the end of the first marking period on the 10th along with report cards and parent-teacher conferences that followed.

We hope that everyone enjoyed their Thanksgiving Holiday with their families and friends. We look forward to the upcoming Christmas season and all of the festivities that go along with it.

Kid's Story Corner

Tania the Turkey was the smartest of her flock. She knew that when the farmer tried to overfeed her, she shouldn't eat more. She knew that when the leaves started falling off the trees, something was wrong. She knew that when the weather got colder, something bad was going to happen. "Hey Tania, what's gotten into you? You're always so worried this time of year," said Tammy who was Tania's best friend. "It's fine, Tammy... I'm just fine," said Tania back. "What are you doing talking to this runt? Tammy get over here now!" yelled Tammy's father. Suddenly, a crowd of humans appeared at the door of the coop. A very tall, slim man with a microphone began to speak. "We are gathered here today to find a special turkey to be the mayor's son's new pet." "I choose this one," he said "and I will name him Marco." Tania was offended, but she went with it. The mayor's son was named Jack. Tania was amazed at the size of Jack's house when she arrived. Tania was thankful, but worried about the other turkeys. She realized that she could talk to humans and convinced everyone not to eat turkey for Thanksgiving. From that point on, they all ate pizza on Thanksgiving Day.

Happy Thanksgiving 2017

In 1621, the Plymouth colonists and Wampanoag Indians shared an autumn harvest feast that is acknowledged today as one of the first Thanksgiving celebrations in the colonies. For more than two centuries, days of thanksgiving were celebrated by individual colonies and states. It wasn't until 1863, in the midst of the Civil War, that President Abraham Lincoln proclaimed a national Thanksgiving Day to be held each November. It is a time for us to be thankful for all the things God has given us.

The 8th Grade Ring Ceremony

Congratulations to our eighth graders on receiving their class rings! It was a beautiful ceremony and reception. May God bless you and guide you always.

CONGRATULATIONS!
